Rev Dr Quek Tze-Ming is Lecturer in New Testament and Integrative Studies at the Biblical Graduate School of Theology, and serves in the teaching ministry of Zion Bishan Bible-Presbyterian Church. He is married to Sharon, and they have two daughters, who occasionally support his ongoing interest in food, football, and movies.

BPCIS UPDATE

Rev Tan Eng Boo from Grace BP Church reflects on the challenges and times faced following the dissolution of the BP Synod in 1980. When the BPCIS Presbytery was launched in 2011 with four churches, Grace Church participated as an observer church....for 10 years. Read their story and why they decided to join the BPCIS this year.

On Sundays, it's delightful to see our new Love Fellowship Hall filled with people, after the Service: eating, laughing, chatting, encouraging one another and, for some of us, sharing the love of Christ with our new friends. If you love God, you ought to also love being in God's House! Why not enjoy breakfast on another day in God's House?

Breakfast hospitality in the Love Fellowship Hall!

Everybody is welcome to the BREAKFAST TOAST TIME! No membership required. Just come and enjoy some butter-kaya toast and a hot cup of coffee/tea (kopi-O/kopi-C). Money no enough? It's FREE!

- Bring yourself – have breakfast with the Lord (while you read the Word and pray with thanksgiving!). If you are attending another Sat morning activity, have breakfast with us before or after the activity.
- Bring a friend – chat with him/her while enjoying together the ambience around you. Introduce your friend to us.
- Bring the whole family – have a toasty breakfast in God's House!

*Who's making the breakfast?
Me (Ps Ian) and some happy kopi kakis! ♥*
